

Grade 3 2007 Manual

WORD	SENTENCE	DEFINITION
flight	A bird in flight is beautiful.	the act of passing through air or space thirsty	After the soccer game, I was thirsty.	wanting a drink rewrite	After you edit, it is time to rewrite your story.	write again sunscreen	Apply sunscreen to avoid sunburn.	something that gives protection from the sun haunted	At Halloween, I visited the haunted house.	visited by ghosts inspect	Be sure to inspect the car before buying it.	to look over carefully province	British Columbia is the most western province in Canada.	the regions that make up Canada countries	Canada and the United States are countries in North America.	large geographic regions defined by boundaries adventure	Climbing the mountain is an adventure!	a daring and difficult undertaking quickly	The fox ran quickly in order to catch the rabbit.	in a short time; rapidly knives	Dad took the knives out of the dishwasher and put them away.	cutting instruments address	Do you remember your friend's address?	the place where a person lives rural	Farms are in rural Ontario.	having to do with the country or agriculture equal	Four quarters and one dollar are equal amounts.	having the same amount knitting	Grandma loved knitting blankets.	to create an item by looping wool together with needles grandmother	Grandmother took us to the zoo.	one's parent's mother known	Had I know you would have been visiting, I would have baked cookies.	Past tense of know invisible	Harry Potter has a cloak that makes him invisible.	unable to be seen review	Have you read the movie review?	an assessment of a subject or thing discovery	He made a new discovery today.	the act of finding something out

Grade 3 2007 Manual

hopeless	He felt that the game was hopeless.	without hope desktop	He left his papers on the desktop.	the flat upper surface of a desk clothes	He put his clean clothes away in the closet.	wearing apparel delighted	He was delighted with his gift.	pleased or happy with (past tense) laugh	His joke made me laugh.	shows amusement or happiness vacation	I am going to England on vacation.	holiday hoping	I am hoping to get a kitten for my birthday.	the act of having hope thankful	I am thankful for my family.	to have gratitude or a sense of thanks worried	I am worried about the big storm.	Past tense of worry, to feel anxious quarter	I ate a quarter of the pizza.	one fourth of a whole brought	I brought my puppy home with me.	to bring something with you imagine	I can imagine myself at Disney World.	to create mental images of things terrific	I did a terrific job on my spelling test.	great guessed	I guessed how many jelly beans were in the jar.	estimated happiness	I hope for happiness and health.	joyousness grow	I hope the flowers will grow.	get bigger shall	I shall help with the chores.	should; will cough	I tried not to cough during the movie.	to release air noisily and spasmodically yesterday	I was sick yesterday.	the day before today definitely	I will definitely do my homework!	certainly tomorrow	I will do my chores tomorrow.	the day after today probably	I will probably win the game today.	quite likely

Grade 3 2007 Manual

temperature	I wonder what the temperature is outside today.	the degree of hot or cold measure on a scale instead	I would like chocolate instead of vanilla.	rather than fiction	Peter Pan is a character out of a book of fiction.	stories that tell about things that are imaginary disqualify	If you cheat, the judge will disqualify you.	to deprive of a prize from a competition because a rule has been broken complain	If you don't like the service, you should complain to the manager.	express dissatisfaction symmetry	If you look at a butterfly, you will see symmetry.	a regular, balanced arrangement on opposite sides of a line autumn	In autumn the leaves change colour.	the third season of the year, also called fall nutrition	In health class, the children learn about nutrition.	food, nourishment alphabet	In Kindergarten the children learn the alphabet.	the letters of our language poetry	In Language we study poetry.	poems invention	The telephone was a great invention.	a new creation observe	In Science class we observe the stages of plant growth.	to watch, to make note of capacity	In science we measured the capacity of the bucket.	the amount that something can hold important	It is important to try your best.	of great consequence impossible	It is impossible for people to fly by themselves.	that cannot be done; hopeless logical	It is logical that if you study for the test, you will do well.	reasonable, to be expected unlikely	It is unlikely that it will snow in September.	not likely tradition	It was a tradition for the family to sing at Christmas time.	the knowledge of customs and practices transmitted from generation to generation unlucky	John was unlucky when he played bingo.	not lucky chocolate	My favourite ice cream is chocolate.	sweet treat made from cocoa beans southern	My friend lives in southern Ontario.	situated in the south batteries	My Game Boy needs new batteries.	devices which give energy

Grade 3 2007 Manual

grandfather	My grandfather lives far away.	the father of one's mother or father enjoyment	My grandmother gets enjoyment from watching the children play.	the act of enjoying glasses	My grandpa forgot his glasses at home.	worn to help improve vision overdue	My library book is overdue.	late wheat	My mom likes to eat whole wheat bread.	grain used for making flour nephew	My nephew is a straight A student.	the son of one's sister or brother costume	On Halloween the boy wore a Spiderman costume.	clothing, etc meant to make one look like someone else climber	One climber made it to the top of the mountain.	someone who climbs homework	Our homework is due Friday.	work given by the teacher to be completed at home peach	A peaches has a fuzzy skin.	round, juicy fruit with a pit in the middle straight	Please draw a straight line.	extending uniformly in the same direction knock	Please knock on the door before you come in.	to strike something, such as a door, to get permission to enter light	Remember to turn off the light.	that which brightens a space believe	She really wants to believe the story is true.	accept as true or real horrible	She had a horrible nightmare.	causing a feeling of horror fortune	She made a fortune in real estate.	one's wealth whisper	A secret is often spoken of in a whisper.	talking quietly, past tense afternoon	Some babies have a nap in the afternoon.	opposite of morning, generally after lunch succeed	Studying will help you succeed in school.	to have a positive result greater	Ten is a greater number than four.	larger than beginning	The beginning of the story was really interesting.	the origin frightening	The big crocodile was frightening.	scary, causing fright

Grade 3 2007 Manual

floating	The boat is floating in the water.	staying on top of the water shelves	All the books were on the shelves.	plural of shelf downstairs	The box was kept downstairs.	the lower level of a building thumb	The boy accidentally shut the door on his thumb.	the short finger nearest to the wrist catch	The boy will catch the baseball in his glove.	trap in one's hands backward	The boy did a backward somersault.	toward the back or rear, in reverse order because	The boy drank because he was thirsty.	for the reason that allowance	The boy wanted a bigger allowance.	money given regularly, sometimes for the completion of chores truthful	The boy was being truthful when he told his mom about the broken window.	saying what is correct naughty	The boy was in time out for being naughty.	misbehaving high	The C.N. Tower is very high.	tall almost	The child is almost 10 years old.	nearly