

WORD Grade	SENTENCE	DEFINITION
felt	Yesterday I felt sad.	past tense to feel before	A comes before B in the alphabet.	earlier than; previous to stay	Sally invited her friend to stay and play.	to remain; not leave cash	When you go shopping, you have to bring cash.	money middle	The white icing is in the middle of an Oreo cookie.	in-between and equally distant from two or more things glow	The plastic stars on the ceiling of her room glow in the dark.	throw out heat and light without flame; display dull light they	When my family comes to visit, they will be staying at our house.	people in general, pronoun for a group of people clap	the audience will clap their hands together after the performance.	hit hands together to show appreciation grade	When I graduate from grade 8, I'll go to high school.	a step in any series, as of quality, etc; degree were	We were at the movies today.	plural past tense of be saw	We saw a giraffe.	past tense of see dump	We dump the newspapers in the recycling bin.	to drop abruptly elm	We collected leaves from the elm tree.	a tree with wide-spreading branches; its wood are	We are having fun.	plural present of be stand	We all stand for "Oh Canada".	opposite of sit stamp	To mail a letter, you must put a stamp on it.	postage, used to mail letters ball	The children like to bounce the ball against the outside wall of the school.	a round toy used in many games taste	Many people like the taste of ice cream.	to experience and recognize the flavor six	Three plus three equals six.	one more than five spot	My white dog has a black spot on its ear.	a small part of the surface of a thing distinguished by colour usually round team	There are two goalies on the hockey team.	a set of players forming one side in a game or contest three	Two plus one equals three.	one more than two five	There are five fingers on my hand.	one more than four deep	The water in the lake is really deep.	extending far down from the top yawn	The tired boy tried to stop a yawn.	open the mouth widely and inhale deeply as an involuntary effect of sleepiness tiger	The tiger let out a mighty roar as it entered the circus ring.	a large powerful feline with blackish stripes found in parts of Asia soft	The teddy bear is soft and cuddly.	opposite of hard, gentle to touch home	The teacher said the children must go straight home after school.	the place where one lives prince	The teacher read us a fairy tale about a prince and princess.	a male ruler, the son of a king or queen name	The teacher always says to write your name on your paper.	the word by which an individual person is known or spoken of sun	It is best not to look directly into the sun.	the star around which the earth orbits and from which it receives light and warmth once	The story began with the words "once upon a time"	on one occasion or for one time only sky	The sky is clear and blue.	the region of the atmosphere and outer space seen from earth robin	When I saw the robin land on my lawn, I knew it was spring.	a large North American thrush having greyish brown upper parts and a brick-red breast and abdomen rich	The rich man owned a huge house.	having much wealth quick	The rabbit was quick enough to get away from the dog.	fast; speedy; rapid kind	Helping those in need is a kind thing to do.	of a friendly generous or gentle nature police	A police officer works hard to keep our city safe.	the men and women that patrol our city safe	Wearing a seatbelt can help to keep you safe.	free of danger or injury smile	Babies smile when they hear familiar voices.	the act or instance of smiling harp	The musician was skilled at playing the harp.	a musical instrument with strings set in a triangular frame, played by plucking the strings with the fingers mice	There was a whole family of mice in our house once.	plural of mouse strong	The man was strong enough to move a car.	having strength gift	I bought my friend a gift for her birthday.	something given on special occasions black	The room was black as night.	without any light shy	The little girl was too shy to talk to new people.	timid lion	The lion lives in the jungle.	a large flesh eating cat land	The land we live in is called Canada.	an expanse of country, ground, soil comb	The hairdresser used a comb when styling my hair.	a toothed strip of rigid material for tidying and arranging the hair green	The grass was beautiful and green.	the colour between blue and yellow in the spectrum snap	The girl was learning to snap her fingers.	move two fingers together to make a noise pink	The girl loved her pink dress	a colour created by mixing red and white long	The girl had long hair.	of great length twin	The girls twin sister looked exactly like her.	siblings born at the same time girl	The girl had a great birthday.	a female child or youth her	The girl carried her back pack.	of or belonging to her or herself dime	The girl bought a candy with her dime.	ten cent coin pond	The frog lives in the pond.	a habitat containing water and vegetation brave	The firefighters are very brave.	having courage hose	The firefighter sprayed water from a hose to put out the fire.	a flexible tube for conveying water duck	The duck was swimming in the pond.	any of the various swimming birds dish	The dog eats from his own dish.	a shallow flat-bottomed container made of glass or ceramic for holding food tag	The children love to play tag during gym class.	a children's game in which one player chases the others and anyone who is caught becomes "it" and is the pursuer.

park	The children love to play at the park.	a piece of land with lawns, gardens in a city or town maintained at public expense for recreational use.
snack	The children love snack time at school!	usually something small eaten between meals tumble	The child took a tumble down the stairs.	fall, especially helplessly, headlong, or end over end who	The cashier asked who was next in line.	used as a question asking about the name or identity of a person or people from	Children often receive gifts from their parents on special occasions.	a giver or sender capital	A sentence always starts with a capital letter.	the city where the central government of a nation or state is located slide	The dresser drawers slide in and out.	move smoothly over a surface sick	The boy was sick and had to stay home from school.	not feeling well lost	The boy was afraid to get lost at the mall, so he stayed close to his dad.	misplaced his	The boy shared his lunch with his friend.	of or belonging to him or himself boy	They named the baby boy John.	a male child or youth swing	You can usually find a swing to play on at the park.	a seat slung by ropes or chains etc. for swinging on or in play	The boy likes to play hockey.	occupy or amuse oneself pleasantly with some recreation, game fell	The boy fell and hurt his knee.	past tense of fall nest	The birds built a nest in the bushes.	created by birds to live in wing	The bird uses its wing to fly.	each of the limbs or organs that allows a bird, bat or insect to fly cage	The bear at the zoo is in a cage.	a structure of bars, wires, wood etc. used as a place of confinement for birds or animals sand	The sand on the beach gets very hot on a sunny day.	granular substance found at the beach below	The basement is below the house.	in a lower place; beneath ballet	The ballerina starred in the ballet.	an artistic dance that usually tells a story or expresses a mood fly	The birds fly high in the sky.	moving through the air or sky shake	Sometimes people shake hands when they first meet.	move back and forth need	Somebody said, "I need help".	want or require this	She said that this was the best day of her life.	the person or thing indicated garden	She grows vegetables in her garden.	a piece of ground used for growing vegetables, herbs, flowers, or fruits speak	The teacher likes to speak at the front of the classroom.	the act of uttering words; to talk bone	She was lucky not to break a bone when she slipped on the ice.	any pieces of hard tissue making up the skeleton in vertebrates why	She always asks me why, when I tell her to do something.	for what reason or purpose - why did you do it when	Rest when there is a break in the game.	the time that something happens ask	Remember to ask for help if you need it.	to question film	Pudding will form a film on top if left sitting open.	a very thin layer, as of oil, coating the surface of something fresh	Please make a fresh pot of tea.	newly made help	Please help me with the chores.	to assist poke	If you poke a balloon with a pin, the balloon will pop.	push against something with a jab bump	It is hard not to bump into people when walking through a crowded area.	hit lightly secret	Once told, a secret no longer is one.	kept private or concealed kite	On windy days it is fun to fly a kite.	a toy consisting of a light frame with thin material stretched over it, flown in the wind make	On Father's Day the children make special cards.	construct or create from parts or from other substances